BENNINGTON BRIEFS

News of the Town and Village Told Briefly for Busy Readers

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Matteson left today on a trip to the Pacific coast.

Miss Dorothy Fields left this afternoon for Jacksonville where she is to teach school.

Arthur Cook and family of St. Johnsbury are moving into the Hudson tenement on Pleasant street.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knapp and four children, accompanied by Miss Alice Snow spent the week-end in Readsboro.

Miss Rose Hines, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. John Gilrain for several weeks, will leave for her home in Fair Haven Sunday.

Grover Lyons, who recently underwent an operation on his eye in a Troy hospital, returned this afternoon. He is making good progress toward recovery.

Dr. R. C. Jenney, E. S. Harris, Grant Harbour and F. A. Lewis of Pownal left this afternoon for Hunter's Rest where they will remain in camp over Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Nurse and daughters, Marguerite and Leona arrived this afternoon from St. Johnsbury and will reside in the future with Mrs. Nurse's son, C. O. Nurse.

Mrs. L. Ewart and son of New York, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Kohn of School street have returned home. Mrs. Kohn accompanied them as far as Troy.

Miss Lucy Cutting, Miss Jane Patterson and Miss Elsie Gavin will spend Sunday at camp "As You Like It" in Woodford. W. B. Cutting will take the party to camp in the Patterson auto truck.

Word has been received from L. E. Gibson, who is traveling in the west with Daniel F. Gardner of Pownal that they were the guests for a few days last week of Earl Harbour in Portland, Ore. Mr. Harbour is a son of Grant Harbour.

The urgent need of more houses was again brought before the meeting of the board of directors at the board of trade meeting Friday evening. It was decided to hold a special meeting some time next week when formulation of plans will be made whereby the board will endeavor to relieve the situation.

WOODFORD

Schools in Woodford open Monday with Miss Hilda Rockwood teaching at the city and Miss Fannie Carrier at the Hollow.

POWNAL

The North Pownal schools open Monday. Sanford Lyons of Bennington has been engaged as principal of the schools.

Instinct and Reason.

"Instinct" is the generic term for all those faculties of mind that lead to the performance of actions that are adaptive in character, but pursued without necessary knowledge of the relation of the means employed and the ends attained. "Reason" is usually applied to such acts as are consciously performed with some particular end in view. Of the two, instinct would seem to be the more perfect, since it seldom goes wrong, whereas the mistakes of reason are innumerable.—New York American.

The Senatorial Result.

The people of Vermont have spoken by direct primary and Sen. C. S. Page has been vindicated in their verdict. The result shows that the man with money has the same advantage in a direct appeal to the people that he did under the old methods. We congratulate Sen. Page on his victory because he has met the most bitter charges made against a Vermonter in recent years and the people have voted him not guilty.

Gov. C. W. Gates did not win the nomination but has lost nothing in the esteem of the people. He did not fight for the nomination. He simply stood for the better things in politics, and has committed no act that will cause him regret. His friends have the satisfaction of having voted for honesty in politics and are not ashamed of their action. The governor will continue to serve the people faithfully until the end of his term and return to private life with the full respect and confidence of all the people.

As for ex-Gov. Fletcher the result shows that the people did not take him at his own estimate of himself. We congratulate the winners in the other contests. There was little to choose between the candidates and the state was sure of a good man in case either candidate won. Vermont is assured of a good working administration for the next two years. Headed by Horace F. Graham for governor and with the re-nomination of so many of the state officers the state can look forward to a practical administration of its affairs.—St. Johnsbury Caledonian.

MAKING TROUBLE

No matter what cares, anxieties or sorrows may vex or sadden you, do not prove yourself a weakling by going down before them, but show yourself noble in rising above them and molding them to life's purpose. To give up the battle because of injustice or ingratitude or wrongdoing at the hands of others is not manly. Do your duty, fight on, and trust in God.

Flora.

"Have you noticed our flora about here?" asked the professor of botany to the new student.

"If you mean the one with white spots, I have," replied the student who had an eye for girls.—Exchange.
